DANIEL A. GANEY

Suddenly Stricken While Leaving Store

DEATH QUICKLY CAME

J. W. Parsons Also Seized With Hemorrhage

Which Proved Fatal Within a Short Time at His Home in East Newark—Mr. Ganey For Many Years at Carroll's Store, Mr. Parsons, a B. & O. Employee—Both Funerals Friday.

Daniel A. Ganey, book-keeper for the John J. Carroll dry goods store, died very suddenly Tuesday night at his new home corner Edly and Hoover streets, about 7:30 o'clock after a few hours illness. His death was due to a hemorrhage of the lungs due to a weakness of one of the larger blood vessels.

Mr. Ganey, who was one of the best and most popularly known business men of the city, was taken ill Tuesday evening shortly after leaving the store at 5:30 o'clock. He locked the front door and started towards the Main street corner when he felt the attack coming on and stepped in the shoe store of George Mayhold, which is one door south of the Carroll store.

He complained of being sick and asked that word be sent to Mr. Carroll and that a carriage be called that he might go home. He evidently realized that his illness was serious for it was with difficulty that he could talk.

Mr. Ganey's condition was rapidly becoming worse and the clerks in the shoe store sent at once for Dr. C. H. Stimson, who reached the man's side within a few minutes. When the physician examined the man he pronounced his condition very grave and a call was sent for an ambulance. The sick man was removed to his home under the care of Dr. Stimson, who did everything within his power to relieve Mr. Ganey's suffering, but to no avail. The patient lost consciousness while being placed in the ambulance and until his death only partially regained his faculties. He only partially recognized the members of his family before his death. Upon two other occasions, the last about four years ago, Mr. Ganey suffered from a similar attack. Neither of the others was serious and for the past year, Mr. Ganey has enjoyed better health than for several years previous. At no time did he have any symptoms of consumption and from his appearance he was as well as usual.

Among the clerks and other employees of the Carroll store, there was no more popular man. He was of a jovial disposition and his friends throughout the city were counted by his entire acquaintance. The announcement of his death came as a severe shock to all who knew him and especially among his fellow employees. Mr. Ganey was Mr. Carroll's right hand man and he never disappointed his employer. Conscientious, capable, courteous and ever anxious to promote the welfare of the store whose interests he so faithfully guarded for years, Mr. Ganey has left a record that deserves emulation.

Daniel A. Ganey was born in New York state in 1862, being therefore about 43 years old. When still a young man he removed to Columbus where he was employed in the store of Green, Joyce & Company, wholesale dry goods. He served that firm faithfully for some time and during his stay in Columbus was united in marriage to Miss Anna Guerin, who survives him.

To this union, a number of children were born, four of whom are living to mourn their father's death. The children are: Daniel, Margaret, Anna and Mary. One brother, Thomas Ganey, of Chicago, is also living.

Mr. Ganey came to Newark about nineteen years ago when he was employed in the James Craigen dry goods store which was then located on the south side of the square.

When the Craigen store was purchased by Mr. Carroll 18 years ago, Mr. Ganey was retained as one of the force of employees. He has since been a worthy and trusted employee. For years he has had charge of the company's books and has been very efficient in that capacity.

He was a faithful member of the Catholic church being identified with the St. Francis de Sales church.

The funeral services will be held at 9 o'clock Friday morning from that church, Rev. B. M. O'Boylan officiating. In all probability the remains will be laid to rest in Mt. Calvary cemetery, south of the city.

JOHN W. PARSONS DIES SUDDENLY

Returning Home From Meeting of the Red Men Mr. Parsons Stricken and Passes Away.

John W. Parsons, who has been in the employ of the B. & O. as yard foreman for a number of years, died at his home, 266 East Main street, Tuesday night at 10:30 o'clock, of hemorrhage of the brain.

Mr. Parsons was a member of Minerva Tribe No. 52, I. O. R. M., and of Taylor Lodge No. 175, B. of L. F., and it was after returning from a meeting of the latter lodge that he was stricken. Mr. Parsons, upon his return from lodge, at once prepared to retire for the night, when suddenly he called to his wife saying, "I believe I am going to die." She at once came to his side and neighbors and a physician were summoned, but Mr. Parsons at once became unconscious and after four hours passed away.

The deceased has a father and mother, four brothers and three sisters living. All reside in Newark except one brother and one sister. He also leaves a wife and three children, two daughters and one son, one daughter residing in Vicksburg, Miss. Mr. Parsons was in the best of health until a few short hours before his sudden death, and his loss is mourned by large numbers of friends. Arrangements have been made to hold the funeral Friday at 2 o'clock.

INSANE MAN SHOTS SEVEN THEN SUICIDES

San Francisco, June 21.—An insane man armed with a rifle ran amuck in the United States Hotel this morning, shooting and seriously wounding seven persons, and then committed suicide.

San Francisco, June 21.—A man supposed to have been Thomas Loeb, armed with a rifle, shotgun and pistol, barricaded himself in a room on the fifth floor of the United States hotel this morning and fired from a window. He shot eight passersby. Then putting the revolver into his own mouth he blew off his head.

The wounded, C. T. Chevalier, Wong Quong, Policeman Patrick Kisade, W. B. Coffman, Emil Roberts, Vincent Raumont, W. Jones, George H. De Launton and Joseph Larielle, none fatally. Loeb's address is unknown. Without warning he started firing out of the window. Thirty policemen surrounded the hotel and broke into the room only after the man had suicided.

GIRLS FILED OBJECTIONS.

New York, June 21.—Thirty girls employed in the spooling department of the Autographic Register company's plant in Hoboken quit work in a body because the management issued an order that no girl with long hair could work at a machine unless she wore a cloth cap to prevent stray hairs from catching in belts and cogs. The order followed an accident which resulted in the partial scalping of a 16-year-old girl. The strike was short lived. It was settled by compromise. Some of the girls had a talk with the management and explained that cloth caps would make them look "perfectly horrid." They said they would willingly wear their nets and the management accepted.

A London policeman earns as long as he remains a patrolman, from $5.81 to $7.79 a week. He may lodge in a section house for only 21 cents a week and gets his board for $1.70. His uniform is supplied free.

JAPANESE

Operating Along Front of Nearly 400 Miles

WHERE FALLS BLOW?

Russians Are In the Dark On the Question.

Three Columns of Japanese Are Now Moving Parallel To Coast of Northeastern Korea—Anti-Peace Papers Contribute To Print Dispatches To Show That Troops Want To Fight.

London, June 21.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times to-day telegraphs that three columns of the Japanese are moving parallel to the coast of Northwestern Korea to the apparent purpose of converging on Possiet Bay, 60 miles southwest of Vladivostok. A large fleet of transports has sailed from Gensan for the same point, according to the correspondent. The anti-peace newspapers continue to print long telegrams from their correspondents in Manchuria asserting the readiness of the army to go on fighting for a year if necessary and the activity of the Japanese is being used to the utmost to stir up warlike feeling among the people. The Japs are operating along a front of nearly 400 miles in width, extending from Mongolia to Korea. The Russians are in the dark as to just where the attack will be launched. Private telegrams are of a pessimistic nature, contradicting the reports of correspondents.

REPORT FROM LINEVITCH.

St. Petersburg, June 21.—Gen. Linevitch reports that on June 20, the Japanese retired southward along the entire front, extending from the Mongolian frontier to Korea. The Russians immediately followed them back to the positions they formerly occupied. Later the Japanese made a vigorous attack on the left flank, occupying several towns.

FUNDS ARE TIED UP.

Chefoo, June 21.—Local missionaries who before the war, had stations in Korea and Manchuria complain that they are unable to secure mission funds deposited for the payment of current accounts in the Russo-Chinese bank of Port Arthur. The bank authorities in reply to all demands for the money say the Japanese still hold the bank books and that this prevents any settlement of the obligations.

COUNT MUTSU COMING.

San Francisco, June 21.—News has been received in this city that Count Mutsu, who is expected to take part in peace negotiations between Japan and Russia, is now on the way from Japan on the steamer Manchuria due Sunday.

CHICAGO STRIKE

Practically No Progress Has Been Made Towards Settlement of the Teamsters' Troubles.

Chicago, June 21.—Practically no progress has been made toward a settlement of the teamsters' strike. The committee appointed by the teamsters' joint council divided itself into subcommittees, all of which made calls on different employers, trying, but without success, to arrange some method of ending the difficulty. The express companies for the first time since the strike commenced the delivery of produce to the commission houses. Union teamsters offered no objection and continued to work as usual. Several business houses had teamsters apply to them for their old positions, and a few of them have been reinstated.

FRANCE HANDS IN HER REPLY

Paris, June 21.—France's reply to the note of Germany suggesting an international conference to consider the question of Moroccan reforms and administration long awaited by the diplomats for the bearing it would have on the possibility of war between the countries was handed Prince Von Radolin, German ambassador, this afternoon. The communication outlines the conditions under which France will consent to participate in a conference, but the exact propositions are kept secret. From an authentic source it is learned that independence of Morocco is alluded to.

MODERN WOODMEN AT MILWAUKEE

LIQUOR QUESTION AGITATING THE HEAD CAMP OF AMERICA.

Dr. Warner of Kansas Discusses the Merits of Fraternal Sanitarium in the West.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 21.—Peoria, Ill., is picked as the winner in the contest for the next meeting of the head camp of the Modern Woodmen.

Detroit is the principal rival. Claims of Peoria's friends are based on the fact that Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas delegations have pledged their support to the Illinois candidates. Buffalo's strength is in the east; also some of the eastern vote will go to Cincinnati to which is pledged also the vote of Ohio and Indiana.

Three important questions, over which the Modern Woodmen have long been divided have been settled. The proposition to adopt more liberal terms relative to candidates who were identified with the liquor traffic was referred, after a heated debate, to the law committee to decide. The proposed change in the rule so as to exempt beneficial members from current assessments at the time they are taken into the society was voted down, and the proposition to do away with the $3,000 policy was killed, the provision being made at the same time for a policy of $1,500.

Milwaukee, June 21.—At the session of the head camp of the Modern Woodmen of America, Dr. Warner of Kansas addressed the convention, discussing the merits of the national fraternal sanitarium for tubercular sufferers. The doctor said that of the more than 700,000 members of the society more than 100,000 were doomed to die of consumption. The Woodmen paid last May $86,000 in death claims due to consumption in April. The doctor told how the Santa Fe Railroad company had given a $1,000,000 hotel and site to the city of Las Vegas, N. M., for sanitarium purposes, and asked that each member of the Woodmen contribute one penny a month to a fund for the maintenance of the institution. The expected fight over the liquor question, due to a desire of the law committee to have admitted to membership any desirable candidate now barred from admission if he be associated even remotely with the liquor traffic, began early, grew bitter, and promises to absorb a large part of the convention's time, with the result that the inhibition is likely to be sustained.

Morton Accepts Resignation.

New York, June 21.—Paul Morton, chairman of the Equitable directors, has announced that he has accepted the resignation of James W. Alexander as president and James Hazen Hyde as first vice president. He said he has not acted on the other resignations yet.

KISSES THE BRIDE BUT REGRETS IT.

Jamestown, N. D., June 21.—A peculiar case which will be tried at the July term of the district court is one brought by Mrs. Mary Bander, of Erie, N. D., against a young farmer of that neighborhood, for $2,000 damages, for the alleged kissing of the bride just after the marriage ceremony had been performed. The complainant alleges that the defendant kissed her before the congregation assembled in the church to witness the marriage ceremony. There is no prospect of a settlement of the case.

SPANISH CABINET HAS RESIGNED

Madrid, June 21.—The entire cabinet has resigned, and its resignation has been accepted by King Alfonso. The resignation followed the rejection of a vote of confidence in the cabinet introduced in the chamber of deputies by Deputy Llorens. Senor Besada, minister of the interior, in supporting the motion said that the cabinet had the confidence of the crown and was backed by public opinion, but it remained to be seen whether it had the requisite parliamentary majority. The minister severely attacked Senor Maura, former president of the council, charging him with clandestinely fighting the government. The motion was defeated by a vote of 204 to 45.

The other day it was reported that 5,000 persons in Great Britain were born at sea.

PRESIDENT

Directs Dismissal of Mr. Herbert W. Bowen.

LOOMIS INDISCREET

Secretary Taft's Report Is Fully Approved.

Minister To Venezuela Accused of Having Hunted Up Scandals and Gossip Until It Became a Monomania—Chief Magistrate Pronounces His Conduct Reprehensible.

New York, June 21.—Herbert W. Bowen, whose dismissal from the diplomatic service was announced at Washington last night, came into the city this morning from East Orange, where he spent the night at the home of Arthur C. Lega, his brother-in-law, and went to the office of the independent. He denied himself to reporters, but sent out word that he was engaged in preparing a statement which would fully set out his side of the controversy which led to his dismissal. This statement he said would not be ready until late this afternoon when it will be given to the newspapers.

Washington, June 21.—As predicted in these dispatches to the Advocate yesterday, President Roosevelt has directed the dismissal of Herbert W. Bowen, who for some years has been United States minister to Venezuela. The report of Secretary Taft exonerating Francis B. Loomis is approved by the President.

President Roosevelt arraigned Minister Bowen in scathing terms, declaring emphatically his conduct is "especially reprehensible," that Mr. Bowen asked one of his witnesses to enter the employ of a certain company for the purpose "in plain words of stealing" documents which he hoped might incriminate Mr. Loomis, and that Mr. Bowen has "evidently for many months, indeed for the last two years, devoted himself" to hunting up scandals and gossip until it became a monomania and caused him "to show complete disloyalty" to the country he represented.

President Roosevelt says he had hoped to promote Mr. Bowen, as during much of his service he had done good work, but his usefulness in the diplomatic service is now at an end. The president adds that he would direct that Mr. Bowen's resignation be requested but for his statement that he would consider a resignation an admission of misconduct, and the dismissal is therefore ordered. The president states that it appears that Mr. Bowen, while minister, secured the publication of attacks on Mr. Loomis and furnished to the press documents pending before the state department for approval, and that his explanation is "inexcusable and shows his 'entire unfitness' for the service. Even if Mr. Loomis had been guilty, says the president, Mr. Bowen's conduct would be unpardonable. The latter quotes certain correspondence and testimony.

Says Loomis Was Indiscreet. In his report Secretary Taft says that there was nothing dishonorable in the transactions in which Mr. Loomis had figured, but that he was not discreet. The report says that Mr. Loomis was not justified in becoming personally interested in any of the schemes, either with a mere nominal interest or substantial interest. He holds, however, that Mr. Loomis has been "most cruelly slandered," comments him for the self-restraint with which he has met the charges, and points out that Mr. Loomis' "bitter experience in this case makes it unnecessary to point out the moral that a minister can not afford to be in the country to which he is accredited to make personal investments, etc. In his report Secretary Taft asserts that the evidence shows that the only transaction which Mr. Loomis ever had with the New York and Bermudez Asphalt company was a mere transfer of funds from Caracas to New York, in which Mr. Loomis was indiscreet in becoming personally interested in the Mercado claim. In another transaction in which Mr. Loomis was indiscreet, Mr. Loomis is acting on behalf of an American syndicate. Mr. Taft says that Mr. Loomis was "certainly treading on dangerous ground in being in his official life so close to a transaction in which he must have expected to have a great personal interest."

ANOTHER REPRIEVE IS NOW EXPECTED

THOUGHT THAT MR. FITTS WILL NOT BE READY TO ARGUE THE CASE.

And Will Therefore Consent to Adjournment of Mrs. Mary Rogers' Hearing for a Month.

Windsor, Vt., June 21.—The chance that Mrs. Mary Rogers will get another reprieve looks brighter today. It is considered that Attorney General Fitts will not be prepared to argue the habeas corpus case in the federal court this afternoon, and that he will consent to adjournment for a month. In that event Governor Bell will necessarily have to issue another reprieve.

Russell Sage is a director and one of the largest stockholders of the bank. CLIFF DWELLERS ARE FOUND IN MEXICO

El Paso, Texas, June 21.—Near Magdalena, Chihuahua, Mexico, a race of "Cliff Dwellers" has been discovered. The report of their existence is brought out by Ben Goode, a miner, and Father Guerrero, a Catholic priest. They live in cliff houses exactly as the supposedly extinct race of cliff dwellers lived, and subsist on corn and game killed with crude weapons. They run away on the appearance of strangers. The vocabulary is different from any kind known in Mexico, and is said to consist of a very few words. They are very small. Their village is in a district full of ruins of prehistoric cliff dwellers.

CERTIFICATES

Calling For Small Sums Were Raised.

PROMINENT CLUBMAN

Who Recently Died Involved In the Forgery.

Great Sensation In Financial Circles of Philadelphia—Nearly a Million Dollars Said To Have Been Raised—Little Will Be Recovered From the Estate—Bank Held Up For Loans.

Philadelphia, June 21.—One of the most sensational cases of forgery that has ever been brought to light in financial circles of this city was disclosed when it was announced that certificates calling for small numbers of shares of stock had been fraudulently raised to hundreds of shares, causing a loss to certain banks and trust companies of this city of from $750,000 to $1,000,000. The forgery involves the name of Benjamin H. Gaskill, who died four weeks ago. Gaskill was the sole member of the banking and brokerage concern known as Benjamin H. Gaskill & Company. He had offices in the financial district and his credit was considered gilt-edged.

At the time of Gaskill's death he was believed to be worth about $600,000. He left no will, and administrators began to close up his business. A patron of the firm, whose name is not given, bought from the estate 100 shares of Philadelphia Traction company stock and 100 shares of stock of the United States Steel corporation. He turned his account over to E. C. Miller & Company, which firm sent the 100 shares of traction stock to the Philadelphia Traction company's office to have the transfer recorded. The certificate did not agree with the company's books, and an investigation showed that the certificate had been raised from six shares to 100. The discovery was reported to E. C. Miller & Company, which firm immediately notified the Stock Exchange, of which Gaskill was a member, which in turn sent out notices to its members not to receive stock certificates from the Gaskill estate.

A further investigation brought to light a surprising state of affairs. It was found that Gaskill had credited himself with 6,000 shares of Philadelphia Traction stock, valued at approximately $600,000, while the traction company's books showed he had only 400 shares. It was also discovered that he had raised stock certificates of the United Railways of New Jersey from two to 200 and the certificates of the Frankfort and Southwark street railway of this city from two to 20. The latter stock is worth $450 a share.

Gaskill kept two accounts—one recording the transactions of his customers, which was correct, and another giving his own transactions. His books showed that he was losing from $15,000 to $25,000 a year in his business. His method of operation was to obtain certificates of gilt-edged securities calling for one, two, three or some other small number of shares, raise the figures and give them as securities for large loans. At least six banks and trust companies of this city admit holding fraudulent securities for large loans. Not one of the institutions will make public the amount of money they advanced, but a financier who has been making an investigation said that the amount of money loaned on the raised certificates will aggregate between $750,000 and $1,000,000. It is believed that very little will be recovered from the estate.

The Kaiser maintained 60 miles an hour as long as the race continued and it was with disappointment that he had to give up.

COUNTERFEITER

Boasted That He Would Have Shot Officers If His Wife Hadn't Been Along.

Columbus, O., June 21.—Boasting that he would have shot the officers if his wife had not been by his side, Charles F. Kline, a confessed counterfeiter, was arrested in First avenue. The woman with him was formerly Anna Carmon, a Columbus widow and religious worker, whom he married on promises of reform Feb. 10 last, when released on parole from the Ohio penitentiary, where he was serving a life sentence under the habitual criminal act, after having been sent up previously for burglary and larceny. At the police station he told Chief of Detectives Dundon that he had been making spurious coins, dollars, halves and quarters, since he had been released from the penitentiary. He said he had buried a basket of coins in his yard at home. Detectives searched the house and found his outfit, but were unable to unearth the basket of money. Several of the pieces of counterfeit coin were found on his person.

AUTHORITY TO PAY TEN PER CENT

ASKED BY LAWYER FOR RECEIVER OF THE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

Judge Orders Dividend Paid, But Objection is Raised—Other Court House News.

In the case of Charles W. Bourner et al vs. The Homestead Building and Saving company, counsel for the receiver, Kibler & Kibler, Wednesday morning asked Judge Seward for authority to pay an additional dividend of 10 per cent, payable July 10, on the same claims that the dividends have heretofore been paid upon. A. A. Stasel objected to the order being made on the ground that he represented a preferred claim of one Nuttor on a certificate of deposit, claiming that it is preferred over claims upon stock, or the ordinary pass books held by depositors, that he claimed to be ahead of the ordinary creditors. Judge Seward stated, from the bench, that he would not hold the payment of this dividend upon a matter that is contested. The Judge stated that it is quite a hardship on these people to do without their money and that they are entitled to have it and that he would order it paid to the people who are entitled to it, and that notwithstanding the claim represented by Stasel, the statement being made that there was enough money reserved to pay the Nuttor claim if it should be found to be entitled to a preference, the Judge would order that the dividend should be paid on the 10th of July. Stasel gave notice of appeal, and the bond for appeal was fixed at $300. Kibler & Kibler, Webb; Daugherty, Flory & Flory, Stasel.

MR. EICHELBERGER ASKS FOR DIVORCE

SAYS WIFE DECLARED COUNTRY LIFE WAS TOO SLOW FOR HER.

Plaintiff Alleges That Mrs. Eichelbarger Deserted Him in 1902 and Has Remained Away.

Fred Eichelbarger has commenced suit for divorce from his wife, Lillian Eichelbarger. The plaintiff says that he was married to the defendant on June 10, 1895, and that one child, Julia, aged seven years, was born of the marriage. Plaintiff says that prior to his marriage with the defendant he resided in the country and was engaged in the business of farming and working as a farm hand, and that it was agreed between them that after their marriage they would reside in the country where plaintiff could pursue his avocation. Plaintiff says that the defendant from the time of their marriage up to the time she deserted him, April 15, 1902, refused to stay at their home in the country, and complained that life in the country on a farm, was too slow and dull for her, and that she could not live in the country nor stay there on that account; that on April 15, 1902, she deserted him and has been absent from him ever since. He therefore asks for a decree of divorce and for all other proper relief. G. C. Daugherty, attorney for the plaintiff.

THE PRESIDENT

Makes a Trip to Worcester, Mass., to Address Graduating Class There Today—Speaks on Way.

Worcester, Mass., June 21.—President Roosevelt's special train reached Worcester at 9:30 today on schedule time.

When the President was awakened this morning at 8 o'clock his train was bowling along through Connecticut, with the weather so cool that overcoats seemed in order. In Washington when the President left the mercury was flirting with 90 degrees.

When Putnam was reached a large throng was gathered about the station and the President came out of the rear of the "Courier" to say good morning. He said: "It is a great pleasure to have the chance of saying a word of greeting to you today. I saw the mayor running along here. I did not know he was the mayor. I saw he was an old soldier and knew therefore that he had a claim upon me as upon everyone else. I can't say more than a word of greeting and draw just one lesson from the mayor's life. The mayor fought in the big war, and if, after he had quit fighting, he had quit doing anything else except talking he would not be mayor. When he got through that job he turned his attention to the next job that came along. Now let us each take a lesson from that."

When the President reached Worcester he found a committee of prominent citizens waiting there to escort him to Clark university. On the way to the college the President rode with Carroll D. Wright, former United States commissioner of labor, now at the head of the institution. After a short tour through the grounds the President was escorted to the hall, where he addressed the graduating class.

Playing the Lobby.

Governor Herrick in his soulful address to the signing waves of Cedar Point took occasion to "skin the lobby alive," and compel it to walk in the straight and narrow path hereafter.

But why did he permit the lobby at the last legislature to carry on its highland and nefarious work in the face of heaven and under the very nose of the Governor of Ohio? Let him answer that, before he again smites his tuncful lyre to fool the Canadian sea nymphs of Point Pelee.

The people of Ohio are tired of the hindsight of Republican governors and the subservience of the Republican legislatures. They have been promising for a dozen years all things and performing nothing that the people need.

Put them down and out. Their prospectuses are flat, stale and unprofitable. Put them down and out, and let some one else vary the monotony by making a record, which is much more to the point than a prospectus.

The lobby ought to be banished from the State House of course, during the session, but how is the State government to be carried on?

Bar George B. Cox, the State Auditor, Secretary of State, the Attorney-General, the State Treasurer, and a few others from getting together in the Governor's office to confer as to the good things that should be enacted into laws, and to frame up what laws may and what may not be passed, and

Eruptions

The only way to get rid of pimples and other eruptions is to cleanse the blood, improve the digestion, stimulate the kidneys, liver and skin. The medicine to take is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Which has cured thousands.

what are we to do for the legislation of any kind?

"But it is not lobbying to call the members down stairs to be counselled with," you say. Certainly not. It was to meet a contingency like this that the dictionary maker invented the two words "brimstone" and "sulphur." Some men prefer brimstone to sulphur; others prefer sulphur to brimstone.

One thing is certain, however. If the lobby is kept down to four or five persons it will be more easily handled and will save a deal of book-keeping.

Judge Gordon—An Inspiration To Young Lawyers.

(Zanesville Signal.)

Mayor Weaver's relentless fight on graft in Philadelphia has disclosed some interesting facts concerning the legal profession and its standards. It is rather discouraging to learn that most of the leading lawyers in that great city were so tied up with retainers that they could not assist the mayor and his personal counsel Judge Gordon, in the great fight against a strongly entrenched and defiant municipal corporation. The men controlling the gas company were interested in many business or financial enterprises, all of which demanded the services of attorneys. These attorneys were bound, or considered themselves bound, by their employment not to interfere in any way with the other interests of the influential men who directly and indirectly employed them. However the highest professional standards had not been entirely lost sight of, and Mayor Weaver had at his command legal talent of the highest order.

"As smart as a Philadelphia lawyer" has long been the superlative praise in many parts of the country. Judge Gordon, by his surpassing ability, his intellectual perception of duty and his devotion to it, and his wise and powerful support of Mayor Weaver in his fight for honest government, has given the Philadelphia lawyer a new reputation.

The first duty of a lawyer is to the court because he is an officer of the court sworn to assist in the administration of justice. It must be remembered, too, that the court is but one branch of an indivisible whole—the state.

Many lawyers and many clients entirely lose sight of this primary function of the attorney's office. They seem to think that the lawyer belongs body and soul to the men who pay for his services. Too many clients claim and expect this abject submission and too many attorneys yield to this degrading servitude.

It is apparent that high professional standards can not thrive in such an atmosphere. It is apparent too that intelligent public opinion recognizes when the standards have been lowered. In some communities "corruption lawyer" like "criminal lawyer" is fast becoming a term of opprobrium because it is believed that the men who devote themselves to practice in these lines literally sell themselves, to be used as their purchasers will.

There must be more honor and glory and personal satisfaction in being a James Gay Gordon in a time of public need than in having the most powerful corporations and the strongest financial interests for clients. Judge Gordon's example at the present hour not only gives the Philadelphia lawyer a new reputation, but it serves as an inspiration to every member of the bar who has proper and laudable ambitions. The approval and confidence of his fellowmen is the lawyer's best reward. The assurance of this reward comes only with the maintenance of the highest professional standards.

STRANGE STORY

Is Told by an Indiana Farmer Who Has Surrendered to the Authorities at Muncie.

Muncie, Ind., June 21.—The strangest story of a modern Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde in the person of an apparently sane, well to do farmer, who at times can scarcely contain an overwhelming desire to seize and strangle to death persons whom he loves, was told calmly and in a straightforward way by the man himself, John Donnell, who came to this city from his country home and surrendered himself to the police. The police committed him to jail where he will be kept pending an examination. He came to town and placed his affairs in the hands of a lawyer, fearing that he might soon be unable to attend to business.

SKUNKS YIELD A SWEET PERFUME

DELAWARE GENIUS RAISES THE DESPISED POLECAT TO HIGH PLANE.

Stephen Patton About to Corner the Perfume Market. So This Delaware Correspondent Says.

Delaware, O., June 21.—Mr. Stephen Patton, of this county, is about to corner the perfume market. Mr. Patton has been raising skunks for their pelts. He has also been raising chickens. Last winter some of the chickens became sick. He gave them coal oil in their food to cure them and found that the eggs thereafter laid by the hens tasted and smelt of coal oil. This gave him an idea. He began experimenting. He gave the skunks oil of lavender, bergamot and orange flowers. He put these perfumes in their feed and he has found the combination, which, after being fed to the skunks steadily for two or three weeks changes their musky smell to the most powerful and delightful perfume, something like attar of roses. One drop of the liquid will make one quart of perfume. The odor from a drop is simply everlasting. You don't have to use it on a suit of clothes but once. It stays until the clothes are worn out.

Mr. Patton's skunks are very tame. They are so tame that he can milk the new perfume from them about once a week, getting from one-half to one ounce and sometimes more at a milking. When Mr. Patton goes out and sits down by the pen in which they are kept and calls they will come out and climb upon his lap to be milked. Mr. Patton has produced three different odors, and he thinks there is no limit to the number he can make. He has had many offers from perfume and soap manufacturers, one firm having offered to take all he can produce and pay $250 an ounce for it. He thinks that the price will go to $500 an ounce, such is the demand for it already.

ONE LOOK

Enough for the Mother Who Recognized the Body Taken from the Water.

Findlay, O., June 21.—Downman's swimming hole claimed one victim yesterday and almost another. Little ten year old Glenn Glazier was swimming in the hole in the afternoon, and, losing control of himself, sank. His cries alarmed a playmate, Norman Green, who instantly swam to his rescue. He caught Glazier as he was sinking. The last time and landed him safely on the shore.

While this was transpiring the dead body of little Carl Jacobs lay beneath the cold waters of the sand pit. He was seen to enter the place in the morning, and some boys diving came across his dead body at the bottom. He was taken to the undertaking rooms.

His father, attracted by curiosity, went with the crowd. It was suggested to him that the body was that of his boy, but after looking at the dead face which was affected by long exposure in the water, he denied it, but called for his wife, who instantly recognized her boy. She fainted and was taken home in a prostrated condition. Mr. Jacobs is manager of the Pennsylvania Lumber company of this city.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-worked in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

AKRON BREAKS DIVORCE RECORD

JUDGE KOHLER DISPOSED OF 22 CASES IN THREE HOURS TUESDAY.

Sorrowing Wives Compelled to Tell Rapidly Their Matrimonial Troubles—Silk and Calico Touch.

Akron, O., June 21.—In three hours of actual holding court yesterday, Judge J. A. Kohler disposed of 22 divorce matters. Fifteen cases were dismissed, the aggrieved ones patching up their differences. Three decrees of separation were granted, and four weeping wives were granted alimony in pending cases.

Society women in rustling silks trod upon the heels of women in calico, so rapid was the progress from the witness room, where the litigants waited, to the trial room and the court was lanky from calling the cases when adjourned.

"I've listened to more woe today than some people think there is in the world," said Judge Kohler when court adjourned. "This day's work must be close to the record."

MISS ELLA OFF, INDIANAPOLIS, IND. SUFFERED FOR MONTHS.

Pe-ru-na, the Remedy That Cured.

Miss Ella Off, 1127 Linden St., Indianapolis, Ind., writes:

"I suffered with a run down constitution for several months, and feared that I would have to give up my work. On seeking the advice of a physician, he prescribed a tonic. I found, however, that it did me no good. On seeking the advice of our druggist, he asked me to try Peru-na. In a few weeks I began to feel and act like a different person. My appetite increased, I did not have that worn-out feeling, and I could sleep splendidly. In a couple of months I was entirely recovered. I thank you for what your medicine has done for me."—Ella Off.

ONLY EGGS,

But They Were Aged and When They Broke, Traffic Was Stopped for Hour in Jersey City.

New York, June 21.—One of the axles under a wagon loaded with decayed eggs broke at Newark and Jersey avenues, Jersey City, yesterday afternoon. Thousands of the eggs were scattered on the pavement, and a moment later men, women and children, holding their noses, were running in all directions. Business in the dry goods district was suspended, and as each trolley car approached the wrecked eggs it was abandoned by the motorman, conductor and passengers. To keep out the odor doors and windows of the stores were closed.

A druggist telephoned to the fire engine house on First street, and three brave fire fighters attached a hose to a hydrant and drove the eggs into the sewer. Trolley traffic over the west-bound tracks on Newark avenue was suspended over an hour, as nobody could be induced to move the wrecked wagon until every vestige of the eggs had been washed away. The eggs were being transported from Manhattan to a tannery on the Hackensack Meadows.

MITCHELL TRIAL

Begins at Portland, Oregon, First Session Being Taken Up by Ex-cusing Jurors.

Portland, Ore., June 21.—The case of the United States against United States Senator John H. Mitchell, indicted in connection with the land frauds in this state is now on in Judge DeHaven's court. The greater part of the first session was devoted to hearing the excuses of jurors.

This is the first of the many Oregon land fraud trials. The case is that charged Senator Mitchell with having accepted fees while Senator for services rendered to Frederick A. Kribs, by which timber land belonging to the latter was passed through the general land office to patent. Mitchell is represented by ex-Senator Thurston, of Nebraska, and Judge A. S. Bennett, while District Attorney Francis J. Horney represents the government. The charge on which Mitchell faces trial is regarded by the government officials as the strongest of the indictments which have been returned against him. The evidence is largely documentary, and is said to consist in great part of letters, checks and account books. The alleged transactions of S. A. D. Pater with Mitchell do not figure in this case nor will Pater be a witness.

The indictment charges that contrary to the federal laws Mitchell received fees from Kribs amounting to $1,750 for using his influence at Washington to secure the patenting of land claims in which Kribs was interested, the money being paid to the law firm of which Mitchell was the senior member.

HORSE FRIGHTENED

Leo Gleichauf Pluckily Held to the Lines Till Wagon Hit Curbing and Was Upset.

Quite an exciting runaway occurred Tuesday afternoon about 5 o'clock on Church street, when the team belonging to J. Gleichauf the furniture dealer, took flight at the cars. Leo Gleichauf, who was driving, pluckily held on and was gaining control of the horses when the wagon hit the curbing at Fifth street and was overturned. Mr. Gleichauf was thrown under the horses' feet, but was soon taken from the perilous position by those standing by. It was found that his left arm was badly bruised, but he was not otherwise injured and he is able to be around today.

Homing pigeons which took part in two races to London reached a speed of a mile a minute.

WADED IN

Until Breast Deep in the Pond, and Then the Merchant Shot Himself.

Shelbyville, Ky., June 21.—Jas. Hardesty, a merchant at Harrisonville, 16 miles southeast of here, was found dead in Cook's pond, a few hundred yards from his home at 6 o'clock last evening. Hardesty left home at nine o'clock with gun and pistol, saying he was going squirrel hunting. As he failed to return home search was made for him. His clothing was found on the bank and his body was taken from the pond. He had waded into the pond breast deep with a 38 calibre Smith & Wesson pistol in his hand and shot himself through the head. Hardesty came from a prominent family and is wealthy. He leaves a wife and three children. No cause is given for the suicide.

SAT UP

In the Coffin and Yawned—Frightened Cemetery Attaches Find a Greek in a Growsome Bed.

Montreal, Canada, June 21.—As Superintendent Roy, of a local cemetery, and some of his assistants entered the vault, they were much frightened to see a man deliberately sit up in a coffin, stretch his arms and yawn. Thinking themselves in the presence of the supernatural the men fled.

Later some of them summoned up enough courage to make an investigation. When they got back to the vault they found the young man, who was barefooted, calmly walking about. He said that his name is Luring and that he is a Greek. He was taken before Recorder Weir, who has ordered an investigation into the youth's sanity. Luring would tell nothing more concerning himself than his name.

Vudor shades afford just the seclusion you desire. A shade suitable for a porch should temper the sun's heat and admit whatever breeze may be. Vudor shades do both—No other shades do. BRIGHT PROSPECT FOR NEW FACTORY

West End Real Estate Owners Are Willing To Subscribe Liberally To Secure New Industry—Plant Employing 130 Window Glass Workers Can Be Secured For $10,000 and Free Site—Black Hand May Secure Factory Also.

Mr. J. E. Snelling and others, promoters, who, for some time past, have been negotiating for two window glass factories for the West End, in this city, have now decided on the erection of one large 21-blower tank plant to be located in the vicinity of the Jewett Car Works. A company now engaged in the manufacture of window glass in Indiana has made a proposition to locate in Newark, provided it is given a free site, $10,000 and a switch. This company agrees to erect a glass plant at a cost of $60,000, and employ at the start 130 people. The pay roll will amount to between $12,000 and $15,000 per month. The promoters of the enterprise have seen all the property owners west of Williams street, with the exception of two, and they have all agreed to donate money to secure the plant. In case the proposition is accepted the new plant will be ready for work by the first of October. A meeting of all interested will be held in a day or two to decide what shall be done in the matter.

Regarding the proposed glass plant to be erected at Black Hand, the farmers in that vicinity and a number of Newark citizens are taking hold of the matter in earnest. A large number of lots have already been sold and active steps are being taken to secure the new industry.

NO PROSPECT OF SETTLEMENT YET

WEHRLE COMPANY ASKS MAYOR CRILLY FOR POLICE PROTECTION.

Chief Sheridan Was Detailed Wednesday Morning to Investigate and Report on Condition.

The trouble at the Wehrle stove foundry involving 125 men who have been out since June 2, seems to have resolved itself into the question of recognition of the Metal Polishers, Buffers and Platers Union. Other matters, it is said, have been agreed upon. The company has filed a written request with Mayor Crilly for police protection.

The strike of the polishers at the Wehrle stove works, this city, which has been on since June 2, has assumed quite a serious aspect, and there is no prospect for an immediate settlement of the difficulty. Mr. Joseph Bishop, secretary of the state board of arbitration, held several conferences with President W. W. Wehrle, A. T. Wehrle and Shop Foreman Gray on Tuesday but no agreement could be arrived at. The men demand recognition of their union, which demand the company refuses to accede. Tuesday night Mr. W. W. Wehrle, president of the company, personally served Mayor A. J. Crilly with the following notice:

Newark, O., June 20, 1905.
A. J. Crilly, Mayor of Newark:
Since June 1, 1905, we have been crippled in the operation of one department of our business, by reason of the attitude of a body of men who gather in squads of two or more, at the entrance to our factory, and as our men in that department go to and from their work, they are assailed by these squads of men, surrounded, jeered, hooted at, abused, followed to their homes, intimidated, threatened with violence, and in some instances actually assaulted so that the men in that department who are ready and anxious to go to work, are afraid to do so because of the threats, intimidations, jeers and conduct of these squads of men.

We therefore demand from you, as the official head of the city, such police protection as will permit our men to go to and from their work unmolested, and pursue their daily avocations without fear of being in danger of assault or injury on the part of these unlawful bodies of men who gather about our work.

THE WEHRLE COMPANY.
By W. W. WEHRLE, President.
Wednesday morning Mayor Crilly detailed Chief Sheridan to visit the works and investigate the matter.

AN AIR BUBBLE CAUSED DEATH

HEALTH INSPECTOR DOSED THE LITTLE GAIL AND SHE SOON DIED.

Diphtheria Antitoxin Administered, Though She Was Not Ill—She Lived Fifteen Minutes.

New York, June 21.—Yetta Green, 7 years old, died at her home, No. 49 Forsyth street, 15 minutes after receiving an injection of diphtheria antitoxin, administered by a health inspector. According to her father the child was perfectly well when antitoxin was given her.

Dr. Darlington, health commissioner, admits that antitoxin caused the girl's death, but offers no explanation except that an air bubble might have been in the syringe. It is the first death from antitoxin in the history of the board of health. The commissioner refuses to make public the name of the inspector, but says he was called to the Forsyth street house to attend a baby who had diphtheria, and gave her older sister an injection as a preventative.

The facts came to light through the application of Morris Green, the father, at the coroner's office for a burial permit. He told the clerk between sobs that the health inspector had made a hurried call, and instead of paying any attention to the baby, waved him aside and injected antitoxin into Yetta, who was in perfect health. In a quarter of an hour Yetta was dead.

Coroner Schuler then ordered an investigation and will hold an autopsy at the morgue today. The board of health will take no action until the death is explained by the autopsy. Dr. Darlington says there was nothing the matter with the antitoxin, and the inspector who used it was an experienced and careful man.

"It is a sad and inexplicable case," said Dr. Walter Bousel, head of the department of medical inspection. "An air bubble in the syringe would kill in a few seconds. Injuring antitoxin would not cause death for several hours. The child lived 15 minutes. We are entirely at sea as to an explanation. The inspector himself is prostrated by the death."

"Never before in my experience, which dates from the first use of antitoxin in America, has it caused a death."

It is thought that the death of the child will make the work of the inspectors of infectious diseases on the East Side particularly difficult in the future. The harmfulness of diphtheria antitoxin was thoroughly tested in the recent experiments of the serum in cerebrospinal meningitis. As high as 10,000 units were injected in children. The diphtheria dose is from 2,000 to 3,000 units.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything in nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the germ, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send for stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Banker Clewell is Acquitted as the State Made Out No Case Against Him.

Cleveland, O., June 21.—George F. Clewell, former secretary and treasurer of the Federal Trust company, accused of embezzling $8,100 from the bank, was last night acquitted. The defense did not offer any evidence, claiming that the prosecution had not made out a case. Attorney Dawley, for Clewell, said he had intended to show by bankers, that, although Clewell was short $18,000 in his accounts, no crime had been committed.

Dawley expected bankers to testify that what Clewell did other bankers had done and are doing today. It was merely a system obtaining among bankers for their own convenience and accommodation, thus helping themselves, sometimes beyond their ability to refund, from the currency of the bank.

"That's what my witnesses would have said," Dawley declared, "but after hearing the states witnesses I did not consider it necessary to call them. The state did not show that Clewell had committed a crime. If he did wrong it was merely the result of a system."

SUPREME COURT

Abolishes Market House Commission at Cleveland—It May Affect Other Boards of State.

Columbus, O., June 21.—The supreme court abolished the market house commission of Cleveland, which was bipartisan, and placed the construction of the market house, for which $100,000 bonds have been issued, in the hands of the board of public service. This is the first instance in which a special commission existing prior to the enactment of the municipal code, and which the code sought to preserve, has encountered an adverse decision. In a sense, the market house commission is the only sufferer by the enactment of the code. The decision at once raises the question of the legality of the City hall commission and the group plan commission of Cleveland.

The court handed down a decision in the case of William Whitman against Robert D. Carter, which even more explicitly supports the liquor reversion clause in warranty deeds than the decision of the same court in the case of Whitman against Brush, a contempt case handed down two weeks ago. In the Carter case, Carter even owned the piece of property upon which Whitman was conducting his saloon, but was the owner of a lot three squares away. He brought injunction proceedings and the fact that the court sustains the decision in his favor establishes the principle that one who is simply a property owner in the vicinity may bring suit to restrain a business which is prohibited by reversion clause in deeds. Both cases arise out of an attempt to conduct a saloon in Terrace park, an addition to the city of Columbus.

BROKEN BOTTLE

Thrown by White, Injuring Two Men. Artery Severed and Man Narrowly Escapes Death.

Clarence White, a former employee of the Kieffer bottling works, near the B. & O. station, threw a broken bottle through the window at the works on Tuesday afternoon, and injured two men. One man, who is known as "Humpty" was seriously injured and narrowly escaped bleeding to death from the wound caused by the broken glass.

White was on the outside of the building near the works, and it is said that he was intoxicated. A machine operator in the building threw a broken bottle from the window into a box kept for this purpose. White thought he was throwing at him and picked up the broken bottle and hurled it through the window, striking "Humpty" on the arm. It then glanced and struck another man in the back. A deep gash was cut in "Humpty's" arm and an artery was severed. Blood spured from the wound, but an employee applied a tourniquet, stopping the flow of blood until a surgeon could dress the wound. No arrests have been made.

METAL WORKERS

Edward Lynch, Brooklyn, President International Union, Has Been Voted Out of Office.

Meriden, Conn., June 21.—Edward J. Lynch of Brooklyn, president of the International Union of Polishers, Buffers and Metal Workers of North America, has been voted out of office. Edward P. Coyle of this city, one of the official counters at the recent election, announced the result. A. B. Groat of Kenosha, Wis., is Lynch's successor. The fight was one of the hottest that has ever taken place in the order, the majority of the successful candidate being but 116. There are 29,000 members of the union throughout the country. J. J. Cullen was elected secretary and treasurer.

BRIBERY

Of Legislators and Labor Leaders Among the Charges of Mrs. Swift Against Harvester Co.

Chicago, Ill., June 21.—Corruption of legislators, bribery of labor leaders, taking rebates from railroads and gross mismanagement of the affairs of the International Harvester company—one of the greatest trusts in the world—are charged against that corporation by Mrs. Margaret Swift, who filed yesterday in the Circuit court a bill in chancery in which she attacks the manner in which she says the company has been run.

In the present year, she declares, the company, by the expenditure of large sums of money, deflected the passage of a bill in the Illinois Legislature intended to permit the manufacture of binder twine in the penal and reformatory institutions.

Mrs. Swift is the wife of Rodney C. Swift, who has been charged by officials of the trust with being unlawful in possession of $100,000 worth of the stock of the corporation.

Mrs. Swift asks among other things, that the directors be prohibited from taking rebates from the railroad companies, and that they be compelled to make honorable returns of the company's property for assessment for taxes.

WAR INDEMNITIES

Enormous Sums that Have Been Paid in Last Half Century—What Will Russia Do?

Baron Suvematsu writing to the London Outlook, declares that his country will never enter into a peace with Russia the terms of which do not stipulate the payment by the conqueror of an indemnity. He "thinks" this should amount to at least $500,000,000. Czar Nicholas II. is reported as having said that he would never agree to such documents and also remain Autocrat of All the Russians.

The Tokyo press thinks the very question of an indemnity already closed; all that remains in that direction, in the opinion of these loyal journalists, is the fixing of the amount. The Petit Parisien, regarded in France as well informed upon all Russian matters, "learns" that "the Imperial Government will consent to indemnify Japan only so far as military expenses are concerned; she will refuse to pay any actual indemnity."

Here are the four most available sources of public information upon a question which is day by day looming larger and larger above the troubled political horizon of the far East. They cannot be said to harmonize. What further light do the written records of past history throw upon the matter?

Only the other day, it seems (1893) the latest of the wars upon the European continent drew to a close with Turkey victor and Greece vanquished. The ancient land of King George was bankrupt, but the Sultan demanded an indemnity of $500,000. The Powers promptly interposed; said that the sum was ridiculously excessive, and Abdul Hamid II cut it down four-fifths. In the nine years that have since intervened he has received something more than half of his $10,000,000.

That same sum ($10,000,000) was the payment which China made England at the close of the Taming Rebellion (1850-1860), but this was nominal merely, and insisted upon more because of the effect it would have upon the impracticable Oriental than for the actual repayment of Britain's fighting expenses, for she had paid out fully $25,000,000 to win.

In 1866 Germany, for Prussia, as the nation then was better known, closed a "little row" with Austria much more advantageously. All told, the fighting had not lasted two months, nor was warfare then the expensive thing it has come to be today, yet Austria with her five lesser allies, was forced to agree to an indemnity of $22,500,000. If a difference is to be found in the distribution suggested by the quotation from the Petit Parisien, it is ready given, this was "indemnification for military expenses" plus "actual indemnity."

Eleven years after (1877) on the other hand, Russia, having beaten the Turks, held down her financial demands to the actual cost to her of the war. So her history written it, and so Europe has believed it. She asked $100,000,000—but the question not immediately presents itself. Would she have asked more from a more solvent creditor? Turkey agreed to the sum set and not the half of it has been paid over in the more than a quarter of a century that has since elapsed.

The greatest indemnity ever asked—and, moreover paid, and paid promptly—was the one billion dollars which Germany demanded from the conquered French in 1871. To obtain guidance in justly calculating what amount should be specified Bismarck telegraphed to Berlin for his own banker, Herr von Bleichroeder, the Rothschild of Prussia, and this eminent brewer first cast the national damages in the sum of $1,200,000,000. M. Thiers objected to this finding, and at last his eloquent pleading cut out home declaring so colossal a debt could never be liquidated. But paid it was; paid long before the time appointed for the deed French never could not endure the sight of those uniformed "men in possession," and down he dipped into those streaking which are the banks of all rural communities, and the billion came up and out with his trademark hand.

What newest item is present-day history to add to this list of $1,247,500,000 paid by the conquered to their conquerors in the past 65 years? If Japan is to be indemnified merely so far as will cover the gigantic expenses to which she has been put since she attacked Chemulpo and Port Arthur early in the February of 1904, even so Russia will be out anywhere from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000. Old Noah Webster, however, considered an indemnity (in this martial sense of the word) "compensation or remuneration for loss, damage, or injury sustained."

Under this construction Japan might well ask a sum which should belittle even Bismarck's $1,000,000,000. But would she get it?

The Gollar Question

Are the edges smooth? Are the folds or points neatly turned? Is the color delicate peaty white? Is the finish that soft effect so much preferred by fastidious dressers? We succeed in all these things. Surely our work is worth a trial. You will be a steadfast patron.

DR. J. F. SHRONTZ SEEKS FRANCHISE

WILL APPLY IN NEWARK AFTER HE FINISHES WORK AT MT. VERNON.

Just as Soon as Franchises for Terminals are Granted Work on Trolley Line Will Begin.

Mt. Vernon, June 21.—Dr. J. F. Shrontz of Martinsburg, formerly of Newark, who has been the moving spirit in the Newark-Mt. Vernon trolley line proposition, will probably ask the Mt. Vernon council for a franchise tonight.

Dr. Shrontz was in the city Monday evening. He expected to petition the city council for a franchise for a terminal in Mt. Vernon for the Mt. Vernon-Newark electric railroad. Owing to the fact that no business was transacted he did not have an opportunity to present the matter, but will probably do so this evening. Just as soon as the franchises are secured here and in Newark, negotiations for the immediate construction of the road will be commenced.

FORBIDDEN

To Wear Man's Clothing, Former Ohio Woman, Deserted, Unable to Find Employment.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 21.—Broken in spirit and health, Lizzie Ashbacher yesterday afternoon went back to her home in Beaver, after she had tried hard, but in vain, to make her way in the city. All morning she waited in the Allegheny police station, alone and friendless, except for her little child. She was penniless and without the prospect of getting employment.

The police forbade her to wear a man's costume and she had been unable to get work. She is ill. Her struggle to provide for herself and child in Pittsburg or Allegheny in woman's attire ended in failure. If she could have continued to masquerade as a man she believes she could have secured suitable employment from which she could support herself and little one. Last night she came to the Allegheny police and begged for a place over night. The department of charities took charge of her and it was decided to send her to Beaver at the expense of the city.

Mrs. Ashbacher married in Akron, Ohio and lived in several Ohio towns. She was deserted by her husband and began making her living as a common laborer in men's clothes.

TO ITS MOTHER

Kidnaped Child is Restored After Two Years Following a Divorce and Two Weddings.

Marysville, O., June 21.—Sheriff Bontenbaugh returned here last night from Toledo with Miss Nellie Gabriel, the ten-year-old daughter of Mrs. Murray Hamilton, who was kidnaped here at the home of her grandfather, Shannon Davis, about two years ago.

Mrs. Gabriel and husband separated and the court gave the wife a divorce and the custody of their child. Gabriel married again some years ago, and Mrs. Gabriel married Murray Hamilton, son of Mayor Hamilton of Marysville. While the little child was visiting at the home of its grandparents, it was kidnaped and taken to Toledo, Ohio, and for a long while her mother never knew where her child was. Finally she was located and Mrs. Hamilton made several attempts to recover her but all to no avail. When she would go to Toledo she was refused admittance and could never see her child.

She finally appealed to the authorities and writ of habeas corpus was got out in the Probate court and the papers given to the sheriff, who, with the aid of a detective of Toledo, finally recovered the child after a lively skirmish and turned her over to her mother last night, who wept with joy over recovering her daughter.

LETTER FROM RUSSIA

Destroyed Happiness of Newly Married Pair—Man's Bride Was His Sister's Daughter.

Columbus, O., June 21.—A matrimonial venture teeming with sadness and most peculiar circumstances, has just been brought to light. Carrie Begodonoff, a pretty Russian Jewess, was the happy bride of her own blood uncle for three months before the discovery was made.

F. K. Friedman, the unhappy groom, on learning the truth, philosophically requested a separation, and, after consulting lawyers, went his way with a heart full of sorrow, while the grief-stricken girl returned to her parents in Russia.

It was in Cleveland that fate decreed that Carrie Begodonoff should meet her uncle, F. K. Friedman, and there learn to love him and become his wife. The best of wishes were extended to the couple when they left to seek their fortune in Columbus. In far off Russia there was a good old mother that Carrie must inform of her taking unto herself a husband. She gave his name and the mother in answer to her letter, after extending the usual blessings, told Carrie that Friedman was her maiden name. Further inquiries were made, and it took but a short time to discover what perverse fate had done. To the surprise of both Friedman and his pretty wife they discovered they were of the same blood.

To an attorney they told their tale of woe, and he rendered an opinion at some length, attempting to prove that no divorce was necessary, as under the law the marriage was null and void. This opinion was written by former Congressman Emmett Tompkins and was reviewed by Attorney Henry Gumble. Friedman left for parts unknown upon the disclosure of his awful mistake. Carrie, whose cup was full to overflowing, at once made arrangements to find her parents in Russia. Nor was she in need of money, for she was supplied plentifully by Friedman before his departure.

Friedman came to this country some years ago, and when he left Russia his sister's child was a wee tot. He had heard from home but a few times, but the saddest message was that which informed him that he was the husband of his own sister's child.

Suicide of a Bride.

Elyria, O., June 21.—Mrs. Lawrence Worcester, a bride of six months, committed suicide standing before her mirror and drinking two ounces of carbolic acid. In two minutes she was dead. Mrs. Worcester was but 21 years of age. Her own ill health and that of her husband led to unhappiness. She had attempted suicide no less than three times.

NARROW ESCAPE HAD LITTLE HARRY

FELL IN FRONT OF A MOVING TRACTION ENGINE AT HOMER.

Death of Mrs. O'Hara—Missionary Meeting Attended by 50 Ladies. Hartford News.

Croton, O., June 21.—Little Harry Ogilvie came near being crushed to death last Friday by climbing on the tongue of the road grader which was attached to a traction engine in motion, and falling in front of the wheels. He was considerably bruised but the machinery was stopped in time to save his life.

The W. F. M. S. of Croton, Johnston and Centerburg spent a delightful afternoon on Wednesday at the home of Jas. W. Oldaker. Mrs. Calhoun of Delaware, O., a returned missionary from China, was among the number and gave the fifty members present a very interesting talk. Rev. W. H. McDaniels also made some appropriate remarks for the occasion. Ice cream, cake and strawberries were served in the evening.

Our community was saddened last Thursday when it was announced that Mrs. O'Hara was dead. A husband and one daughter survive her. The funeral service Saturday was conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. H. McDaniels of the M. E. church, of which she was a faithful member. Interment was made in the Homer cemetery.

Ashley McGinnis, wife and daughter of Utica, spent Sunday with L. P. Wheeler and family.

Mrs. Estella Stults who has been seriously ill at Utica, has recovered sufficiently to be removed to her father's home here.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church was entertained at the home of Mrs. Nora Miller last Thursday. Prof. D. D. Pryor and wife returned Monday from a week's visit near Pataaskala.

Dr. Stoughton received a telegram Sunday from his wife who was visiting her parents near the Indiana and Ohio line to come at once as their baby, a son, one year old, was seriously sick. He left on the first train and returned with his wife and child Tuesday, the babe being considerably better by the time they arrived home.

R. L. Stoughton and wife of Westerville are the guests of their son here this week.

NEW LEXINGTON

Was Deserted Owing to Buckeye Lake Outing—People Had a Fine Time at Lake.

New Lexington, O., June 21.—It was a tired but happy crowd that returned home from Buckeye Lake last night. The people all had a fine time and they are speaking well of Buckeye Lake Park and its management. "A deserted village" is the term that completely covered the situation at New Lexington yesterday. A special train of 14 coaches left the town in the morning over the Ohio Central for Buckeye Lake where the local business men held their annual outing. Every business house and industry was closed. Many former Perry county citizens who now reside in Columbus, Zanesville, Newark and other cities were at the reservoir mingling with their friends and old acquaintances, and thus the event may be termed a reunion as well as an outing.

EACH TOLD

That the Other Was Dead—Husband and Wife Collapsed When They Met.

Chicago, June 21.—Dressed in mourning and believing her husband was dead, Mrs. Henry Schwickheim went to the county jail to claim the body. Instead she came face to face with him, for he was alive and had received a telegram saying that she was dead.

The husband fainted and the wife collapsed. Later it was learned that the five months old babe of the two had died and that the body was buried yesterday but neither knew in what cemetery.

Schwickheim's incarceration is said by him to be part of a plot to prevent him testifying against an alleged burglar. He is charged with assault for having shot a man detected breaking into his home.

After the arrest of Schwickheim the wife placed her infant in the care of her sister and went to Ft. Sheridan. Monday evening she received a telegram to the effect that her husband had died.

Mrs. Schwickheim declared that she and her husband were victims of persecution.
